Activities Breakdown

Oakleigh Tour

Price: $3 per student

Length: 30 - 45 minutes

Location: Upstairs at Historic Oakleigh House Museum

Contents of the tour, as well as exact length, vary based on the age level of the children and preferences of the organizer. Contact Oakleigh staff for specific details related to your group.

Artifact Scavenger Hunt

Price: Included with $3 tour rate

Length: 30 - 45 minutes

Location: Upstairs at Oakleigh, prep and grading in the gift shop

5 minutes of prep and explanation with students downstairs, followed by 20 - 30 minutes for the scavenger hunt, followed by time to grade the scavenger hunts while students can shop in the gift shop and use the restrooms.

Historic Games and Ways of Life

Price: Included with $3 tour rate

Length: 30 minutes minimum - can be extended by needed by extending play time

Location: Outside in fair weather. Inside space available in poor weather conditions.

Talk about what the daily life during the Antebellum period was like. What they would have done, how they would have dressed (with a staff member or volunteer dressed in costume), differences in school then and school day, and ending with historic games and how to play them.

Crafts

Price: $1 per student (for each craft) in addition to the $3 tour rate

Length: 30 minutes per craft - can be expanded as needed.

Location: Cox-Deasy Cottage or Union Soldiers Barracks (depending on availabilities)

Hands on learning allows the kids to work through some of the concepts discussed in fun and engaging ways. Current Craft Options include:

Build your own house
Yarn dolls

Afternoon Tea

Price: $7 per student in addition to the $3 tour rate

Length: 1 hour

Location: Varies

Learn about this time-honored southern tradition in style at Historic Oakleigh House Museum. Enjoy Oakleigh's special tea recipe and light hors d'oeuvres. Menu items will be decided on a case by case basis with the Oakleigh staff and field trip coordinator.

Larger groups must schedule more activities in order to be accommodated due to the space constraints of the exhibits. There is a maximum of 30 students per activity (at one time). Because the Oakleigh Tour and Scavenger Hunt utilized the same space, there is a combined total number of students who can utilize these options at a time.
